

Performer of Kendama

I began to play Kendama at the age of seven and became a disciple of a Kendama school. I have won the nationwide Kendama Championship ten times in Japan and set two Guinness world records. After graduating from university, I became professional Kendama performer. Now, I hold Kendama show and the Kendama school of about 200 times a year. And I performed the Kendama public performance by America, Brazil, Britain, Denmark, Russia etc.

Thank you for viewing my profile! I would be glad if you like my show and Kendama.

What's Kendama?

Kendama is Japanese traditional toy and very famous in Japan by people of all age.

The basic play is to hold the stick and pull the ball upward using the string, and attempt to catch it in one of the three cups or to spear it with the point of the stick.
